- AP/SOWK 4000 6.00 and AP/SOWK 4001 6.00 consist of a field work component in an approved social work setting arranged by the School of Social Work. Successful completion of the practicum includes the integrative seminar component.
- The practicum courses are graded as “credit/no credit.”
- AP/SOWK 4000 6.00 and AP/SOWK 4001 6.00 are exempt from the Senate Policy on Repeating Courses for Academic Credit. Students may only repeat AP/SOWK 4000 6.00 and AP/SOWK 4001 6.00 with permission of the School. Please refer to Senate policy for repeating of passed and failed courses at <http://www.yorku.ca/univsec/policies/>
- BSW Direct Entry majors must enroll in the SOWK 4020 integrative seminar component with 4000 & 4001 courses.
- Course permission granted by the Field Services Staff only

BSW Majors Involuntary Field Placements Withdrawal Regulation

A student may be required to withdraw from a Placement course if:

- The student fails to meet the requirements of the course, either through unsatisfactory seminar and/or practicum attendance/participation, or through unprofessional behaviour in fulfilling course requirements.
- The student's performance is judged to disrupt the functioning of the practicum site and/or jeopardize the well-being of clients of the practicum site, and/or demonstrates unprofessional behaviour at the practicum site.
- The decision to require the student to withdraw will be taken by the Director of the School of Social Work on the recommendation of the course director and/or the Field Education Manager, following a meeting with the student.

Behaviour that may Result in Withdrawal from the BSW Program

A student may be withdrawn from the BSW program if the student:

- Commits any breach of the CASW Code of Ethics, the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers Standards of Practice, and/or any York University Policy that relates to student behaviour, such as;
 - The York University Student Code of Conduct or the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty that would engage the behavioural and ethical standards of the profession;
 - Engages in any proscribed behaviour in a practicum agency as detailed in the School of Social Work's Practicum Manual;
 - Acquires a criminal conviction after being admitted to the program (or which was acquired prior to admission but became known only after having been admitted to the program) which jeopardizes the student's ability to gain registration as a social worker; or
 - Engages in behaviour that impairs the performance of professional responsibilities.

BSW Honours Progression & Negative Academic Decisions

- BSW student who receives negative academic decisions and whose cumulative grade point average falls below 5.0 (C+) during the course of their studies may proceed in an Honours program, on warning, provided that they meet the year level progression requirements as set out below:
 - Year 1 - 0- 23 credits: Minimum 4.0
 - Year 2 - 24-53 credits - Minimum 4.25
 - Year 3 - 54-83 credits - Minimum 4.80
 - Year 4 – 84 credits – Minimum 5.0
- Students are required to attain a minimum grade of C in all SOWK major courses used in their BSW Programs. Students who fail to meet this standard must repeat the course(s) in the next available session and are strongly advised to make an advising appointment with the School of Social Work.
- Students who wish to complete their degree (Direct Entry) in four years must complete 30 credits per year.

PROGRAM ADVISING DEGREE REQUIREMENTS FAQs

Q: Do I have to take five courses per year in the direct entry Program?	A: No. You can take fewer than five courses. However, if you plan to graduate in four years, you must make these up in summer sessions, or take more than four years to graduate.
Q: What grades do I need to complete my BSW?	A: You need to have a GPA of 5.0 (C+) with no courses in Social Work under a C (see pages 18 and 23 in the BSW Handbook).
What is a full-time student?	A: full-time student is taking 18 credits during the Fall/Winter term.
Q: When do my General Education requirements need to be completed?	A: These requirements need to be taken in the first 42 credits of the degree. Please note that a maximum of 36 credits can be used to fulfill the degree requirements.
Q: How can I finish the program in four years?	A: Students who wish to complete in four years should follow the recommended course sequence plan in the BSW Handbook and in the Undergraduate Academic Calendar section of the current student website.
Q: Do I have to take SOWK 4020 with the practicum or before?	A: Direct entry students must take SOWK 4020 with the practicum. Post-degree students must take SOWK 4020 before the practicum
Q: Can I take SOWK 2020, 2025, and 2035 as free choice courses?	A: No. These courses are general interest courses for non-social work students. Social Work students should take 3000-4000 social work elective courses on these topics because they contain professional and practice content.
Q: If I have a community college diploma, do I have to take SOWK 1011	A: Community college diplomas from designated programs will be exempt from SOWK 1011. All other diploma holders must take it.
Q: How do I know how much advanced standing I get for my community college diploma?	A: When you are accepted, the Office of Student Advising Services will assess your college transcripts and tell you what transfer credit you will receive.
Q: Is a community college diploma holder who takes SOWK 1011 able to take SOWK SOWK2050, SOWK 2060 and SOWK 2070 concurrently?	A: Depending on your transfer credits, you may be given permission to take these courses concurrently.
Q: When am I ready to apply for the practicum?	A: Direct entry students are ready when they have completed all their core Social Work courses except SOWK 4020. Post-degree students are ready when they have completed all of their core courses including SOWK 4020.
Q: Can I use my community college practicum hours towards my BSW practicum?	A: No. CASSW standards require a 700 hour placement for BSW students.
