MISSION STATEMENTS SCHOOL DIRECTORY PROGRAM DESCRIPTION IMPORTANT DATES

YORK UNIVERSITY FACULTY OF LIBERAL ARTS AND PROFESSIONAL STUDIES SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

The School of Social Work is recognized as having one of the most progressive and socially responsive social work programs in Canada. There are two streams in the BSW Honours degree program. Both BSW options are accredited by the Canadian Association of Schools of Social Work.

- 1) The first is the Direct Entry stream, which can be completed within four years, if students enter in the first year of University or three years, if students enter in the second year. To complete in this time frame, students need to do 30 credits per year (including one summer term).
- 2) The second is the Post Degree stream. These students have three years to complete their degree, but can complete in a shorter period of time, depending on credits taken.

The school also offers a full-time and part-time graduate MSW program, as well as a Phd program. The School uses a curriculum that was designed with the collaboration of professors, students, field instructors and community representatives. In this way, the School's programs respond to the real needs of social workers in the context of dramatically changing global realities.

Students in the School receive a professional social work education that is characterized by a commitment to human rights and social justice. Dedicated instructors, who draw from a strong contemporary curriculum and their own practical experience, afford students the opportunity to acquire their own practical skills that will enable them to help individuals, families and communities.

Career Options: This is what Critical Social Workers Do!

Social Work and Social Justice

- Social work is concerned with social justice and the impacts of structural inequalities such as poverty, unemployment, discrimination and oppression. It aims to work with individuals, families, and communities and to address policies in order to increase their capacity to bring positive social change, social development, and social cohesion.
- Social justice work can happen in different employment contexts including family service agencies, children's aid agencies, general and psychiatric hospitals, school boards, correctional institutions, welfare administration agencies, federal and provincial departments.
- Social workers also work in local and international community-based agencies and grassroots organizations to engage in various community organizing and development work to challenge social inequalities and oppression.
- Social workers are also involved in policy analysis, policy development and planning, often working in federal, provincial, territorial and municipal departments and regional social planning councils.
- > The responsibilities of social workers vary depending on the settings in which they work.
- Some social work graduates choose to pursue registration, and some workplaces require that they do so. Registered social workers have specialized university education and must participate in continued professional learning and skills development to fulfil the requirements of their professional regulatory body; the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers (OCSWSSW) (http://www.ocswssw.org/about-us/about-sw/). Many social work graduates do not pursue registration and many social work jobs do not require this of their employees.
- A four-year undergraduate program is required for a bachelor's degree. Persons who have a Bachelor of Social Work degree may obtain a master's degree after one year of postgraduate studies. Those who have a degree in another discipline (e.g., psychology, equity studies, sociology) require a two-year postgraduate program in social work to obtain the master's degree in social work.

The Canadian Association for Social Work Education (CASWE) has the responsibility for accrediting university-based social work programs: http://casw-acts.ca/en/what-social-work/education-and-development.

Have you always wanted to give back to the community? Have you found pleasure in helping others and improving the world around us all? Do you want to make a difference by helping to alleviate injustice and oppression for those less fortunate around the world and here in Canada? Majoring in Social Work within the Department of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies, will expose you to modern-day views on justice, human rights, law and philosophy as you explore the social work arena, its theory and practical applications. You will gain knowledge of contemporary approaches to social issues such as morality, tradition and custom and attempts at dealing with oppression, be it gender, race, status or aged- based.

CONNECT WITH YOUR BSW PEERS The Social Work Students Association (SWSA) is looking for you!

The Social Work Students Association (SWSA) plays a critical role to build a collaborative community at the School of Social Work to support students to express their voice, be heard, feel supported, develop their own communities in the School and practice what is learned in the classroom. As a recognized student group within the larger York community, through SWSA our BSW students have access to funds to organize on-campus and community events. These events make lasting contributions and influence other incoming BSW students to make their lives richer, thus strengthening the School of Social Work at York University. Thanks to the leadership of the SWSA executive, the School of Social Work has a useful channel for effective and efficient communication with our BSW student body. Former Presidents and Vice Presidents/Directors of SWSA have laid the foundation for more active student engagement on the part of future BSW students.

Past BSW SWSA Committee Executives have:

- Participated as members of the BSW Committee, contributing to the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies; Hosted workshops for BSW students (e.g., employment opportunities);
- Established a mentorship program with BSW/SWSA students and elementary students in the Jane-Finch area through partnerships with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Toronto; Collaborated with other BSW/SWSA students in establishing a student run national peer-reviewed journal for BSW students, and student peer mental health support group; Assisted on projects with the President's Office by recruiting students for a University photo-shoot; Organized and hosted Social Work Week, Awards ceremonies, School of Social Work Sweaters, and a Book Drive; Collaboration and participation in the university social work student groups' Social Work Week; Implemented SWSA Suggestion Box and Webpage;
- Participated in campus Spring Open House and Fall Campus Day events; and organized a solidarity event with CUPE 390 and contributed to 6 Excalibur articles advocating, spreading the word and standing up for worthy causes; Communications with current, incoming/outgoing SWSA members with monthly SWSA and AGM Meetings; SWSA Executive Team nominated for the LA&PS Student Association Outstanding Overall Contribution to Student Experience Award.

York University BSW Student Professional Behaviour Policy

http://sowk.laps.yorku.ca/files/2016/01/BSWStudentProfessionalBehaviourPolicy.pdf

The Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) degree is an important determinant of eligibility for registration with the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers. Given the professional trajectory of the BSW degree, a professional standard of behaviour is expected from social work students. An issue in this policy is the protection of the public and the University's role in graduating competent professionals.

Progression through the BSW program at the School of Social Work at York University is contingent on students' behavior, meeting the ethical and behavioural standards set forth in the Canadian Association of Social Workers Code of Ethics (CASW)<sup>1</sup>, the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers Standards of Practice<sup>2</sup>; the York University Student Code of Conduct, and other relevant York University policies <sup>3</sup> including, but not limited to the Sexual Harassment Policy and the Policy Concerning Racism.

This policy recognizes the general responsibility of the faculty members of the School of Social Work to foster acceptable standards of professional behavior, and of the student to be mindful of and abide by such standards.

A. Behaviour that may result in withdrawal from the BSW program:

A student may be withdrawn from the BSW program if he or she:

- Commits any breach of the CASW Code of Ethics, the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers Standards of Practice, and/or any York University Policy that relates to student behaviour, such as the York University Student Code of Conduct or the Senate Policy on Academic Honesty that would engage the behavioural and ethical standards of the profession;
- 2. Engages in any prescribed behaviour in a practicum agency as detailed in the School of Social Work's Practicum Manual;
- 3. Acquires a criminal conviction after being admitted to the program (or which was acquired prior to admission but became known only after having been admitted into the program) which jeopardizes the student's ability to gain registration as a social worker; or
- 4. Engages in behaviour that impairs the performance of professional responsibilities.

B. Jurisdiction:

Allegations of a breach of professional behavioural or ethical standards by a student enrolled in the BSW degree program offered by the School of Social Work, York University shall be dealt with by the School of Social Work, York University in accordance with the procedures outlined below.

C. Procedures for determination of whether a Student Professional Behaviour Review is necessary:

- 1. Any breach of professional behaviour that is deemed so serious that it may warrant requiring a student to withdraw from the program will, initiate a Student Professional Behaviour Review.
- 2. Non-Practicum Courses: In instances where a Course Director of a non-practicum social work course has concerns about student behaviour that have not been resolved through discussion with the student, he or she will consult with the Undergraduate Program Director. The Undergraduate Program Director, the Course Director and the student will normally meet to discuss the concerns in the hopes of determining a resolution. If no resolution is achieved or if conditions agreed to by the student as part of the resolution were not fulfilled, the matter shall be referred for a Student Professional Behaviour Review.
- 3. Practicum Courses: In the event that a Faculty Advisor or the Field Education Manager has concerns about the behaviour of a student enrolled in SOWK 4000 6.00 or SOWK 4001 6.00 (Practicum in Social Work I and II), he/she will follow policies detailed in the School of Social Work's Practicum Manual. Where the matter concerns the possible outcome of denying the student an opportunity to complete the practicum requirement, the matter shall be referred for a Student Professional Behaviour Review.

4. When allegations of a breach of professional behaviour standards by a student enrolled in the BSW program are reported to have occurred in a venue other than a BSW course or practicum, the matter will be investigated by the Undergraduate Program Director or designate. Normally, this investigation will include meeting with the student to discuss the allegation in the hopes of determining a resolution. If no resolution is achieved or if conditions agreed to by the student are not fulfilled, the matter shall be referred for a Student Professional Behaviour Review.

D. Student Professional Behaviour Review:

- 1. Once notified of a potential breach of professional behaviour standards by a student in the BSW Honours degree program, the designated Faculty office shall post a block on enrolment activity in the concerned course or courses. The student may not drop or be deregistered from the course for any reason, nor withdraw from the University, nor request to have their transcripts released until a final decision is reached.
- 2. The Undergraduate Program Director of the School or his/her designate convenes a review committee consisting of three members. The review committee will consist of the Associate Dean of Students of the Faculty or his/her designate; the Director of the School of Social Work; and one other member of the BSW Program who has not been privy to the allegations. The Undergraduate Program Director of the School or his/her designate, the Field Education Manager for the School or his/her designate, Course Directors of courses in which the student's behaviour has become an issue, Field Instructors where the behaviour occurred in a practicum setting, and other representatives of the profession may be called to serve as witnesses. When the alleged breach of professional or ethical standards occurs in a non-course or practicum setting, other persons may be called to appear as witnesses.
- 3. The student will be notified in writing by e-mail and by priority commercial post of the intention to hold a Student Professional Behaviour Review and provided with suggested times and dates. It is the student's responsibility to provide the School with current e-mails, postal and telephone contact information. Failure to do so may, result in shorter or no notice being received. In such case, the Review may take place without the student. The letter notifying the student of the Review shall include a summary of the alleged breach of professional standards, and an outline of the procedures to be followed at a Student Professional Behaviour Review. If the student wishes to file a written response to the allegation, it must be received within fourteen calendar days of the date on which the notification of the Review was sent to the student. All parties are required to inform the Review Committee of their intention to call witnesses, and the names of these witnesses at least seven calendar days prior to the Review.
- 4. The student has seven days to respond so as to fix the time and date for the meeting. If the student does not respond in a timely way, the Review may take place without the student.
- 5. The student may be accompanied by a representative. In such case, the representative's name and relationship to the student must be provided to the Director in advance of the Review.
- 6. The Director or designate chairs, a School staff person of the Review Committee take notes; the representatives of the School first present their concerns. If witnesses are present, they are called to present their information concerning the alleged behaviour of the student. The student is then given an opportunity to ask questions about the concerns, evidence presented and to respond to them. Finally, the representatives of the School have an opportunity to comment on any issues or information that has been presented by the student. The Review Committee is not bound by formal rules of evidence applicable in courts of law.
- 7. When all available relevant evidence and witnesses have been heard, and both the School and student have had their opportunity to provide comments, the Review Committee shall then enter into a closed session to determine whether a breach of professional standards or ethics has occurred, and if so, what actions will be taken. The decision is made by a majority vote of the review committee.
- 8. A Student Professional Behaviour Review will result in one of four outcomes:
  - i) A finding that no breach of professional standards or ethics has occurred. No records will be retained;
  - ii) A finding that a breach of professional standards or ethics has occurred, and it is determined that no action other than remedial educative measures will be taken;
  - iii) A finding that a breach of professional standards or ethics has occurred that warrants the imposition of conditions on the student as a requirement for continuation in the program.
  - iv) A finding that a breach of professional or ethical standards has occurred that warrants either or both assigning a grade of F in the course, and withdrawal of the student from the BSW Honours degree program.
- 9. The decision of the committee shall be communicated to the student in writing, delivered by hand or via mail. A record of the decision will be retained in the Office of the Director of the School of Social Work, regardless of the severity of the penalty, and be held for a time consistent with the University's records retention guidelines. This record is for internal academic purposes only. A note shall be placed on the Student Information System to bar withdrawal from the course.

F. Appeals:

1. Students may appeal to the Senate Appeals Committee any decision rendered from a Student Professional Behaviour Review on the grounds permitted by the procedures of that Committee. Information on the Senate Appeals Committee procedures can be found at:

* Add and Drop Deadline Information

There are deadlines for adding and dropping courses, both academic and financial. Since for the most part, the dates are different, be sure to read the information carefully so that you understand the differences between the sessional dates below and the Refund Tables.

You are strongly advised to pay close attention to the "Last date to enrol without permission of course instructor" deadlines. These deadlines represent the last date students have unrestricted access to the registration and enrolment system.

After that date, you must contact the professor/department offering the course to arrange permission.

You can drop courses using the registration and enrolment system up until the last date to drop a course without receiving a grade (drop deadline).

You may withdraw from a course using the registration and enrolment system after the drop deadline until the last day of class for the term associated with the course. When you withdraw from a course, the course remains on your transcript without a grade and is notated as "W". The withdrawal will not affect your grade point average or count towards the credits required for your degree.

Important Note:

A Study Plan Checklist is an aid for planning courses only and should be used in conjunction with the calendar. It is NOT a substitute for the calendar. Degree and program requirements are subject to change. Every effort has been made to ensure that the study plan checklist and the York Undergraduate Calendar reflect the most recent changes. There may be instances when what is published does not reflect the most current University policy. In such instances, when the published versions of policies or regulations differ from what has been most recently approved by Senate, the latter will prevail. It is the responsibility of the student to take the correct courses and ensure ALL degree and program requirements are met.

General education requirements:

21 credits in accordance with the following to be completed at the 1000 level: 6.00 credits in natural science (NATS), 9.00 credits approved general education course in the social science or humanities categories; a 6.00 credits approved general education course in the opposite category to the 9.00 credits course in social science or humanities already taken. It is strongly recommended that students successfully completed (pass) their first General Education courses with the first 24 credits and all General Education courses are to be successfully completed (passed) within the first 48 credits. A maximum of 9.00 credits in each of the four areas (Humanities, Social Science and 6.00 credits Natural Science) will count towards fulfillment of General Education requirements, or major or minor program requirements, may be used to fulfill required credits outside the major:

- General Education courses may be used to fulfill the General Education Requirement and, if applicable, major or minor program requirements. For the purpose of meeting major and minor program requirements, all 9.00 credit General Education courses will count as 6.00 credits towards the major or minor. The remaining 3.00 credits will count towards the total number of credits for the degree.
- General Education courses used to fulfill the General Education requirements, or major or minor program requirements, may not also used to fulfill required credits outside the major.
- Additional General Education courses used to fulfill the General Education requirement, or major or minor program requirements, may not be used to fulfill required credits outside the major.
- Additional General Education courses not used to fulfill the General Education requirements, or major or minor program requirements, may be used to fulfill required credits outside the major.

(Exception: students who have successfully completed a 9.00 credits 1000 level foundation course will be considered to have satisfied the 6.00 credits corresponding area of study in general education and three credits will count toward non-major or free choice courses).

Minimum Academic Standing:

Academic Requirements and How to Calculate your GPA Social Work BSW Grade Requirements

Academic Requirements/standing in the BSW program

In the BSW social work program you must:

- Earn a 5.0 (C+) cumulative average. "Cumulative" means the average of all your course grades at the end of the program. You do not have to have a 5.0 average every year, but your average must be high enough every year that you can expect to have a 5.0 average by the time you graduate. This means that: your average in the first year must be a minimum of 4.0 (C). Then, adding grades from the second year, you need a minimum of 4.25. After adding third year grades, you must have a minimum of 4.80. By the end of the fourth year, you can then reach the minimum 5.0 (C+) grade average for all four years.
- Get a minimum of a "C" grade in all your Social Work courses. If you get less than a "C" you must repeat the course or change to a different program.

What happens if you don't get the average you need? You will not be able to continue your studies in social work and you will be automatically placed in a Bachelor degree program.

How to calculate your cumulative grade average:

To calculate a grade point average, you must take into consideration the grade point value of grade achieved and the credit value of the course. To calculate the overall grade point average the following formula applies.

Step 1: Take the credit value (6.00 for a full course and 3.00 for a half course) of each course and multiply it by the grade point value (see table).

Step 2: Add the total credits taken to obtain your total credit value. Add the total grade point values to obtain your total grade points.

Step 3: Divide the total grade point value by the total credits taken which will give you your overall grade point average.

Example:

| Course    | Credit | Value | Gra | de Point Value | Total Grade Points |

IMPORTANT:

If social work students decide to take non-social work courses outside of the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Professional Studies, please remember to consult the course descriptions for course credit exclusions. See https://w2prod.sis.yorku.ca/Apps/WebObjects/cdm for further details.

BSW (Direct Entry) Honours Major with Minor in Non-Social Work Discipline

The Direct Entry Honours program in Social Work (BSW) may be pursued jointly with any Honours minor bachelor program that offers a major/minor option. Refer to programs of study.

Note: in a major/minor program, a course may count only once toward major credit or minor credit.

Student must complete at least 60 credits in the social work major and at least 30 credits in the minor in conformity with the requirements of the program minor. At least 12 credits in the major and at least six credits in the minor must be at the 4000 level. Refer to the BSW Honours (Direct Entry) program for social work major requirements.

Students are reminded that, in conformity with the requirements for the BSW Direct Entry degree program, they must complete a total of at least 39 credits outside the major. These credits include the requirements of the minor.

For further details regarding degree options, please refer to: http://sowk.laps.yorku.ca/undergraduate-program/current-student/checklists/ If you have questions about your general education requirements, please contact our office for advising.

Courses Outside the Major (known as "electives" prior to FW12)

Credits outside the major are courses which are intended to broaden the educational experience of students beyond their area of specialization. Credits outside the major include most courses which are not used to fulfill the general education requirements or major/minor requirements.

Courses not considered to be credits outside the major are:

- Major/minor courses taken above the required number;
- Non-major/minor courses taken within the major/minor subject (e.g. AP/FR 1020 6.00 is a non-major French course);
- Courses outside the major/minor taken to fulfill major/minor requirements (e.g. AP/ADMS 2400 3.00 or HH/PSYC 3570 3.00 and AP/ECON 3240 3.00 are human resources management requirements);
- Courses which are cross-listed or designated in the Undergraduate Calendar as program course substitutes to courses offered by the major/minor program (e.g. For Criminology, the Undergraduate Calendar reports AP/CRIM 3656 3.00 is cross-listed to AP/SOSC 3656 3.00 and is also a program course substitute for AP/CRIM 3652 3.00).

Cross-listed courses can only be used once, either toward the major or outside the major.

THE PRACTICUM PROCESS

For more details, please refer to the complete practicum manual at the following link: http://practicum.sowk.laps.yorku.ca/resources/manuals

OVERVIEW OF THE PLACEMENT PROCESS

Students are strongly advised to visit the Practicum Manual which is available online: http://practicum.sowk.laps.yorku.ca/resources/manuals/

The Practicum is an undergraduate course that is a core requirement of the Bachelor of Social Work (Honours). However, this course is administered differently than other undergraduate courses - students must submit an application, satisfy eligibility requirements and successfully interview for a placement through the Field Education Office in order to participate in the course.

There are NO exemptions from the Field Placement requirements in the York Program.

Since students cannot qualify to participate in the placement until they have completed Practicum Pre-requisites including the core courses, it is expected that the practicum courses will be one of the last courses that students participate in. Practicums are completed in the final year of study. Note: The following Social Work required courses (1011, 2030 or 2060, 2070, 2050, 3041, 3060, 3070, 3110 and 57 credits outside of Social Work) must be completed before starting practicums.

Successfully negotiating a placement is not only important to placement students, it is also important to the Field Education Office. The Field Education Office puts a lot of thought, time and effort in this process and works closely with hundreds of community partners in order to secure the best possible placement opportunities for over 200 students each academic year.

There is only one field placement for B.S.W. students. Therefore, the planning process is critical for a successful experience. The process is a collaborative one between the student and the Field Education Office. The student must complete a placement application, provide a current résumé, attend Orientation Sessions and other events hosted by the School pertaining to placement and collaborate with the Field Education Office. Students are encouraged to discuss with the Field Education Coordinator their questions or concerns about identifying and securing a field placement. All placements must be approved by the Field Education Manager before they can be confirmed. As a result, it is imperative that students work in close consultation with the Field Education office while planning for their placement.

A. ORIENTATION SESSIONS

Direct Entry Undergraduate Program

Direct Entry students are:

- a) Students who have been accepted into the program directly from High School;
- b) Mature students who have not had any post-secondary education but have been in the field for some time;
- c) Students who have completed a college diploma in a field such as social service work, community development or youth and child care work.

In their first year of studies, students are given an opportunity to volunteer for forty (40) hours as a requirement of the 1011 course. Some diploma holding students (e.g. Social Service Worker, Community Worker) are not required to take the first year introductory BSW course.).

Direct Entry students will begin the practicum in September of their last year and continue through until April.

- They will complete the 700 hour placement on a three (3) day/week schedule, and will all have the same start and end dates.
- Deadlines will be established for submission of the Mid-Point Progress Review and Final Evaluations.

IMPORTANT POLICIES REGARDING PRACTICUM

A. SCHOOL AND STUDENT OBLIGATIONS IN SECURING PLACEMENTS

It is important to note that a student is not guaranteed a placement simply because they have completed the academic portion of their degree. Students are expected to demonstrate readiness for practice in the process of securing a placement in addition to the fulfillment of the practicum hours. The following process applies to each attempt to secure a placement.

The student's obligations include:

- Remain in good financial standing with the University and are registered for the appropriate academic term during the placement process.
- Participate and follow the School's placement processes and protocols, including NOT reaching out to an agency on their own without prior discussion with the Field Education Coordinator.
- Complete the on-line placement application by the specified deadline.
- Complete practicum course pre-requisites and co-requisites. If students are not able to do this or cannot start their placement at the expected time for any reason, students are responsible for informing the Field Education Office right away.
- Check phone and e-mail messages regularly (for example, 2-3 times a week). Please note that if students do not respond to the Field Education Coordinator about an opportunity by the specified deadline, they will not be considered for the potential placement.
- Keep the Field Education Coordinator updated with any changes to their contact information.
- Inform the Field Education Office of any absences that might affect your availability during the placement process.
- Prepare for and successfully interview with the agency.
- Respect an agency's time and efforts in the process. If a student accepts an interview with an agency and the agency subsequently offers a placement to the student, the student must accept the placement offer and their placement search is complete.
- Enroll in the correct practicum course before the placement starts in order to ensure that credit is received.
- Conduct themselves in a professional, open-minded and respectful manner; being mindful of the tone, grammar, and attitude when communicating with members of the Field Education
- Office and community partners, whether this is through email, phone or face-to-face communication. The Field Office welcomes your on-going constructive feedback.

The school's obligation in relation to field placements is to make a reasonable attempt to secure a placement for a student. Following three unsuccessful attempts to secure a field placement for a student, the Field Education Coordinator, in consultation with the Field Education Manager and the Undergraduate Program Director may request that a review committee be struck consisting of the Field Education Manager, a Field Instructor who is a member of the practicum committee and a Faculty member who is a member of the practicum committee to consult on what additional steps if any might be taken to resolve the placement difficulty for the student. At this point, the student's professional suitability for continuing in the program will be assessed.

B. PLACEMENT BREAKDOWN / STUDENTS AT RISK OF FAILURE / INVOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL

There are a number of important School policies relating to students on placement. These include:

- > Policy on Placement Breakdown, Policy on Placement Failure,
- Regulations on Involuntary Withdrawal, BSW Student Professional Behaviour Guidelines Policy on the use of Social Media etc.
- It is strongly recommended that students review these policies which are available on the school website at http://practicum.sowk.laps.yorku.ca/resources/manuals well in advance of beginning the placement process.

PETITIONS GRADE REAPPRAISALS ACADEMIC HONESTY

Undergraduate Academic Petitions

What is a Petition?

A petition is a formal request for the waiver of a Faculty's regulation or deadline. Students have the right to petition on reasonable grounds for special consideration.

Petitions are submitted to a student's home Faculty. The Faculty's Petitions Committee will review the file, and make a decision on a case by case basis.

Before initiating a petition, students are advised to review University and Faculty rules and regulations as stated in the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies Calendar. Students must be able to identify the regulation or deadline that they are petitioning.

Students must meet with an academic advisor prior to submitting an academic petition or appeal.

Once your advisor has reviewed your situation and has determined that a petition and/or appeal is your best option, you will be given further instructions regarding the online submission.

Important Notice!

The Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies has moved to an on-line submission system for all petitions. You are no longer able to submit petitions in paper format, or in person. ## Grade Reappraisals

Students may, with sufficient academic grounds, request that a final grade in a course be reappraised (which may mean the review of specific pieces of tangible work). Non-academic grounds are not relevant for grade reappraisals; in such cases, students are advised to petition to their home Faculty.

Students are normally expected to first contact the course director to discuss the grades received and to request that their tangible work be reviewed. Tangible work may include written, graphic, digitized, modelled, video recording or audio recording formats, but not oral work.

Should a student sill remain dissatisfied, they have the option to approach our office to request a grade reappraisal. Students must complete a grade reappraisal form which can be obtained from our office and return it along with their tangible work before the deadline.

The Senate approved deadline for submitting grade reappraisals is:

- February 15 for fall term grades,
- June 15 for fall/winter session and winter term grades,
- September 30 for summer session grades,
- or a minimum of 21 days from the release of grades, whichever is later.

Students need to be aware that a request for a grade reappraisal may result in the original grade being raised, lowered or confirmed.

If the condition of sufficient academic grounds has been met, the relevant department committee, Department Chair, Associate Dean or Graduate/Undergraduate Program Director will be responsible for ensuring that the work is reappraised by an appropriate faculty member, ensuring anonymity of both the student and the reappraiser, and for communicating the result of the reappraisal (including the reappraiser's comments) and the route of appeal to both the student and the course director. The reappraiser will be given the nature of the assignment and the rationale for the original grade. It is expected that every effort will be made to render the decision within 30 days of the reviewer having received the work.

Information regarding the University's grade reappraisal policy can be found online at http://myacademicrecord.students.yorku.ca/grade-reappraisal-policy.

Senate Policy on Academic Honesty

1. Senate Policy on Academic Honesty

The Policy on Academic Honesty is an affirmation and clarification for members of the University of the general obligation to maintain the highest standards of academic honesty. As a clear sense of academic honesty and responsibility is fundamental to good scholarship, the policy recognizes the general responsibility of all faculty members to foster acceptable standards of academic conduct and of the student to be mindful of and abide by such standards.

Academic honesty requires that persons do not falsely claim credit for the ideas, writing or other intellectual property of others, either by presenting such works as their own or through impersonation. Similarly, academic honesty requires that persons do not cheat (attempt to gain an improper advantage in an academic evaluation), nor attempt or actually alter, suppress, falsify or fabricate any research data or results, official academic record, application or document. Finally, academic honesty requires that persons do not aid or abet others to commit an offence of academic dishonesty, including intentional acts to disrupt academic activities.

Suspected breaches of academic honesty will be investigated and charges shall be laid if reasonable and probable grounds exist. A student who is charged with a breach of academic honesty shall be presumed innocent until, based upon clear and compelling evidence, a committee determines the student has violated the academic honesty standards of the university. A finding of academic misconduct will lead to the range of penalties described in the guidelines which accompany this policy. In some cases, the University regulations on non-academic discipline may apply. A lack of familiarity with the Senate Policy and Guidelines on Academic Honesty on the part of a student does not constitute a defence against their application. Some academic offences constitute offences under the Criminal Code of Canada; a student charged under University regulations may also be subject to criminal charges. Charges may also be laid against York University students for matters which arise at other educational institutions.

2. Senate Guidelines on Academic Honesty

2.1 Summary of Offences Against the Standards of Academic Honesty

The following summary of offences is not exhaustive, nor are the definitions provided for each offence confined to the examples cited.

2.1.1 Cheating is the attempt to gain an improper advantage in an academic evaluation. Forms of cheating include:

- Obtaining a copy of an examination before it is officially available or learning an examination question before it is officially available;
- Copying another person's answer to an examination question;
- Consulting an unauthorized source during an examination;
- Disruption of an academic evaluation by any means;
- Obtaining assistance by means of documentary, electronic or other aids which are not approved by the instructor;
- Changing a score or a record of an examination result;
- Submitting the work one has done for one class or project to a second class, or as a second project, without the prior informed consent of the relevant instructors;
- Submitting work prepared in collaboration with another or other member(s) of a class when collaborative work on a project has not been authorized by the instructor;
- Submitting work prepared in whole or in part by another person and representing that work as one's own;
- Offering for sale essays or other assignments, in whole or in part, with the expectation that these works will be submitted by a student for appraisal;
- Preparing work in whole or in part, with the expectation that this work will be submitted by a student for appraisal.

2.1.2 Impersonation is to have someone impersonate one's self in class, in a test, examination or interview, or in connection with any other type of assignment or placement associated with a course or academic program. Both the impersonator and the individual impersonated may be charged.

2.1.3 Plagiarism is the misappropriation of the work of another by representing another person's ideas, writing or other intellectual property as one's own. This includes the presentation of all or part of another person's work as something one has written, paraphrasing another's writing without proper acknowledgement, or representing another's artistic or technical work or creation as one's own. Any use of the work of others, whether published, unpublished or posted electronically, attributed or anonymous, must include proper acknowledgement.

2.1.4 Improper research practices. Academic research includes the collection, analysis, interpretation and publication of information or data obtained in the scientific laboratory or in the field. Forms of improper research practices include:

- Dishonest reporting of investigative results, either through fabrication or falsification;
- Taking or using the research results of others without permission or due acknowledgement;
- Misrepresentation or selective reporting of research results or the methods used.

2.1.5 Dishonesty in publication. It is a violation of academic honesty to knowingly publish information that will mislead or deceive readers. This includes the falsification or fabrication of data or information, as well as the failure to give credit to collaborators as joint authors or the listing as authors of others who have not contributed to the work. Plagiarism is also considered a form of dishonesty in publication.

2.1.6 Dissemination of information without permission. Information or experimental data that was collected with a member of faculty or another student, and other works that involved the participation of a faculty member or another student, should not be submitted for publication or otherwise disseminated without their permission.

2.1.7 Abuse of confidentiality. Taking or releasing the ideas or data of others that were given with the expectation that they are confidential is inappropriate. This includes the ideas or data obtained via the evaluation of confidential grant proposals, award applications or manuscripts that will be or may have been submitted for possible funding or publication. Unless one is authorized to do so, it is improper to obtain a password assigned to another or to copy or modify a data file or program belonging to someone else. Proper authorization means being granted permission either by the owner or originator of that material, or by an appropriate faculty member or administrator.

2.1.8 Falsification or unauthorized modification of an academic document/record. It is a breach of academic honesty to falsify, fabricate or in any way modify, either through omission or commission, an application to the University or a program, course student examination or test, transcript, grade, letter of recommendation or related document, a degree, a physician's letter/form or any other document used in support of an academic application, record, petition/appeal or endeavor.

2.1.9 Obstruction of the academic activities of another. It is a violation of academic honesty to interfere with the scholarly activities of another in order to harass or gain unfair academic advantage. This includes interference or tampering with experimental data, with a human or animal subject, with a written or other creation (e.g., a painting, sculpture or film), with a chemical used for scientific study, or with any other object of study.

2.1.10 Encouraging, enabling or causing others to do or attempt any of the above with intent to mislead an instructor, academic unit, program, office or committee as to a student's academic status, qualifications, actions or preparation, or knowingly aiding or abetting anyone in a breach of academic honesty shall itself be considered misconduct. Taking any action, which can reasonably be interpreted as intending to encourage or enable others to commit an offence of academic honesty.

Academic Integrity

What is Academic Integrity?

"Academic integrity" refers to a set of conventions that scholars follow in their work, and which generates credibility, trust, and respect within the academic community. As a student, earning a university degree in a fair and ethical way also involves following these conventions.

Violations of academic integrity can lead to disciplinary actions under York University's Senate Policy on Academic Honesty. Effective time management and study skills can help students avoid feeling desperate and engaging in actions which violate academic integrity.

What does this mean to me?

As a student, to have academic integrity means that you have adopted principles or standards that consistently govern how you pursue your school work. A student with academic integrity earns a degree with honest effort, and knows that this degree is a true accomplishment reflecting years of hard work and genuine learning. Academic integrity requires you to develop essential skills including research, writing, and documenting.

Student Papers & Academic Research Kit (SPARK)

SPARK is your guide to successful academic papers.

SPARK modules are available online at http://www.yorku.ca/spark/index.html and they:

- Are 8 10 minutes each
- Focus on research, writing and learning
- Include examples, templates, videos and more

Preventative Measures

Ultimately, it is your own responsibility as a York student to understand and to apply the principles of academic integrity.

Here are some tips to help you produce work with integrity:

Manage your time to avoid the temptation of cutting corners. See Time Management module for guidance

- Check first with your instructor if you would like to make use of collaboration, tutoring, or editorial help from others
- Make use of on-campus academic support services Libraries, the Writing Centre, or Learning Skills Services
- Keep a research log, notes on your readings, and drafts of your written work, to document your research process

Following the guidelines and resources included in this module and other SPARK modules will help you adhere to principles of academic integrity in all facets of your academic work.

Breach of Policy on Academic Honesty

Remember, however, that the University does not consider ignorance of the policy to be an excuse for breaches of academic honesty. Suspected breaches of academic honesty are handled by a Committee within the Faculty offering the course, and may include the following steps:

- 1. an exploratory meeting
- 2. a formal hearing at the Faculty unit level
- 3. an appeal of the ruling at the Faculty unit level to the Senate Appeals Committee

Academic Support & Accommodations

http://ds.info.yorku.ca/academic-support-accomodations/

The first step in arranging academic support and accommodations will be for a disability counsellor in CDS to review your medical and/ or psychological diagnostic assessment report. This is the beginning of an interactive process whereby you and a disability counsellor will discuss:

- Your learning style
- Your academic program of study
- The method of course delivery and the type of participation required of students (e.g. lecture, seminar, tutorial, practicum)
- The nature of your disability and its impact on the postsecondary learning process
- The recommended accommodations in the diagnostic assessment report

Determining which academic accommodations are appropriate is a shared responsibility among students, the disability counsellor, and the professor or course director in each course. Although professors are not "disability experts", they are the authority in their field and in the course they teach; therefore, sometimes they may suggest a more appropriate, practical or creative accommodation that best suits the course and respects academic integrity.

The process of accommodation is very individualized. Students diagnosed with the same type of disability may have very different accommodation plans. The disability counsellor will consider the recommendations in the diagnostic report along with the other factors noted above. Depending on the circumstances, additional, or sometimes, fewer, accommodations may be recommended to your professors.

Provided that the recommended accommodations do not undermine the academic integrity of the course, they will be implemented as recommended. The scheduling logistics of accommodated exams and tests will be handled by the Registrar's Office. For more information about the policies and procedures involved with accommodated tests and exams, please visit http://www.yorku.ca/altexams.

Alternate Exam Processes:

CDS and the Registrar's Office work in partnership to support exam and test accommodation services for students with disabilities. Exam and test accommodations will be determined by your disability counsellors in accordance with the relevant documentation and in discussion with students. The scheduling logistics of accommodated exams and tests will be handled by the Registrar's Office. For accommodated exams and test request procedures and policies, please visit www.yorku.ca/altexams.

Health Behaviour Change Lab

http://ritvo.lab.yorku.ca/ontario-on-the-move/

Behaviour change is a central challenge in saving lives, in preventing and curing illness and improving the quality of life. The Healthy Student Initiative is an ongoing research program. We collect data throughout the fall and winter semesters and offer online and in-room meditation sessions most days of the week from the start of each semester until the end of each exam period.

Over the course of each semester we collect responses from two surveys and take a single TMS measurement from participants. Participants are compensated at the end of the semester (up to $50 depending on the measurements completed) and are free to withdraw from the study at any time without penalty. To join the study please contact us here or speak to a meditation leader. More details are provided below.

The Meditation Sessions: Our meditation sessions are open to everyone and there is no obligation to join the study should you choose to attend. The sessions are completely free and no sign-up or registration is required so please feel free to join us any time!

The study: Close to the start of each semester we begin collecting survey responses. Paper copies of the survey are offered at each meditation session and may be filled out and returned to a meditation leader. We also email a link to our survey and a pdf copy of the survey to those who have attended at least one meditation session so that it may be completed digitally if it is more convenient. Completing the first survey officially enrolls someone as a participant in the study.

Closer to the end of the semester we begin collecting the second survey. The second survey is similar in format and length to the first. When collection begins we typically email access to the link and the pdf to those who have completed the first survey. In the past we have not given out paper copies of the second survey but we can provide one if requested.

Behaviour change is a central challenge in saving lives, in preventing and curing illness and improving the quality of life. In most cases, we know what must be done (e.g. reducing carbon emissions, obesity and sedentariness) but do not act to a sufficient degree on sufficient scales. The gaps between potential and reality, often attributed to lack of political will, motivation or perspective, are problems of behaviour change to which evidence-based principles apply. With epidemiological and economic modeling becoming more precise, we're aware that survival depends on change and can estimate how quickly change must happen. We also observe leaps of change where individuals band together against great odds and achieve previously 'impossible' and benevolent results.

Social Work Collection Development Policy (Library Services)

Subject Librarian: Norda Majekodunmi

Policy written by: Kalina Grewal, Judith Hardy (retired) http://www.library.yorku.ca/web/about-us/contact-us/liaison-librarians/social-work-collection-development-policy/

Academic Programmes Supported and Description of Current Collection

The Libraries' collections support teaching and research in Social Work up to and including the M.S.W. level. The B.S.W. (Honours) is concerned with social policy and problems, methodology and social work practice. As well, electives in various aspects of social work are chosen. The masters programme has three areas of specialization: Mental Health and Social Work; Family and Children's Services; and Social Policy and Planning. The primary organizing principle is the integration of social work practice and social policy with a multicultural emphasis.

The Institute for Social Research, the Centre for Feminist Research, and the Centre for Health Studies are the research units most closely connected to Social Work.

Description of the Current Collection

The sociology and psychology collections are essential to social work and give students a strong base from which to draw. The collection is strongest in areas of graduate study. In the practicing aspects of social work, the journal collection needs some strengthening.

Related Collections at York

Psychology and sociology are the disciplines most closely related to social work. The fact that social work does not have separate funding means that either the psychology or the sociology fund is used for most of its acquisitions. Interdisciplinary topics are seldom a problem. Government documents are acquired by the documents librarians and legal aspects are selected by the law librarians.

Peer Support Team (PST):

The Peer Support Team (PST) is an important part of the Office of Student Conflict Resolution (OSCR) and PST members offer a number of support services to the York community:

- Provide advice and support to students involved in the disciplinary process.
- Assist students with resolve conflicts less formally through alternative dispute resolution processes.
- Promote and encourage a peace-building culture on campus.
- Educate students about the Code of Student Rights & Responsibilities (CSRR) and conflict resolution resources offered at York.

Our Peer Support Team plans outreach activities focusing on topics related to conflict resolution. The PST will host events to raise awareness about the CSRR, the alternative dispute resolution process, and how students can access resources and get support when they are dealing with a conflict.

Peer Support Team members are available to meet with students who are involved in a disciplinary process and need support.
